

Case File: House Robbery on Maple Street

Date: January 2nd, 2024

Address: 123 Maple Street, Elmwood, CA

Investigating Officer: Detective John Smith

Incident: Burglary and theft at residential property.

Victims:

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henderson, residents of 123 Maple Street.

Suspects:

Unknown at this time.

Statements:

Mr. Thomas Henderson: "We were gone for the weekend celebrating our anniversary. When we returned on Sunday evening, the front door was smashed open and the place was in complete disarray. Drawers were emptied, jewelry boxes plundered, and electronics missing. It was a nightmare."

Mrs. Emily Henderson: "The worst part is the feeling of violation. Knowing someone was in our home, going through our personal belongings... it's chilling. We lost several sentimental items, like my grandmother's locket, that can never be replaced."

Evidence:

Smashed front door glass, fragments collected for fingerprint analysis.

Disarrayed furniture and overturned belongings throughout the house.

Empty jewelry boxes and missing valuables, documented by photographs.

Footprint impressions near the broken door, photographed and cast.

Fingerprints lifted from various surfaces within the house.
